Dear Gratiot County Citizens and Interested Persons:

It is a pleasure to provide you with the Gratiot County Directory to assist you in communicating with all levels of government and inform you of various boards and commissions for citizen appointments. I hope you find our efforts in compiling and arranging this information helpful in making our government more accessible and thus able to serve you better.

We extend our thanks and appreciation for your continued interest and hope this directory fulfills your needs and further promotes your involvement in County and Local Government.

Please visit our website at www.gratiotmi.com where you'll find additional information including Board of Commissioner meeting schedules, Minutes and Board packets for review.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Angie Thompson".

Angie Thompson, Gratiot County
Clerk

Gratiot County was named for Captain Charles Gratiot who supervised the building of Port Huron's Fort Gratiot. It was set off in 1831 and organized in 1855.

The courthouse was built in the classical revival style by Claire Allen, a prominent southern Michigan architect. It is one of several sites in the county listed on the National Register of Historical Places. There are six Michigan historical markers in Gratiot County—Alma College, Gratiot County Courthouse, Jackson Weller House, Lumberjack Park, Michigan Masonic Home and Saginaw and Gratiot County State Road/Saginaw Valley and St. Louis Railroad.

Gratiot County has 570.13 square miles of land and 1.48 square miles of water.
